1. [redacted] basic training in Budapest [redacted] consisted of the following:

A. Border Guard Service

(1) Sector patrol duty: In this assignment, the patrol which consists normally of two EM, patrols a sector of the border which may be from 500 meters to two kilometers in length to detect violations or illegal border crossings. In time of emergency, this patrol is increased to 4 EM.

(2) Patrol duty: This duty consists of patrolling an area one to two km in depth on the Hungarian side of the border. The patrol is to examine documents and personal identification of persons who appear suspicious within this area. This patrol normally consisted of two persons, but was increased to 4 in case of emergency.

(3) Path checking patrol: This patrol checked the plowed earth strip during either day or night for foot prints indicating an illegal border crossing. This patrol consists of two men.

(4) Concealed observation patrol: This duty consists of the occupation of a concealed position approximately 50 meters from the eight meter wide plowed field. The position of this post is known only to the patrol and to the commanding officer. The rest of the border outpost is not even informed as to the location. This post is not regularly relieved, but remains in position until recalled or until someone attempting to cross the border is apprehended. This patrol must maintain silence and immobility.

(5) Document check point duty: This patrol is stationed along a main highway where all passers by are asked to present
